WHAT IS SUCCESS

by Paul Arsenault

In the world of professional sport, winning is synonymous with success. In the world of College Athletics, sometimes we forget that unlike the pros, winning is not necessary for success, and success is not necessary winning.

Our main objective this year at Sir George is to develop a successful Athletic program for the university community. Success will be a well rounded program of Intramural, Recreational and Intercollegiate activities. If our program can help develop more school spirit more pride and unity throughout Sir George's concrete campus this will be success. If we can offer an opportunity for fun, relaxation and enjoyment for everyone, this will be success. If we improve someone's physical skills, develop extra confidence in someone or help a student meet new friends, this will be success. If one of our programs results in more mental or physical fitness which helps a student achieve his or her academic objective this will be success... and if in the process we win a few games, develop exceptional teams and athletes and gain a national reputation for outstanding collegiate teams this too will be success.

We are proud of Sir George and of our past tradition of excellence in Athletics. We are proud of our star athletes who have found success in professional sport after graduation. We are prouder still of the many hundreds and thousands of former students who through the efforts of former Athletics Directors - Magnus Flynn, Doug Insleay and coaches such as Hirsch, Smith, Whiteacre, Kemp, Sadler, Elk, Amromin, Chiarella, Dies, Finnie and many more have participated enjoyed and graduated. Perhaps someday your fondest memories of Sir George will include an Intramural Hockey game, a championship football game at Verdun or a Georgian Ski trip.

We hope to continue and improve upon this tradition of success, and with your help and co-operation we will.

Returning lettermen: The Georgian expect 17 lettermen to return from last year's second place club. Included is running back Bob Bindon a 5'10" 180lb. speedstar, Bruce Riddell, Bruce Charron and Brent Terry, three hard-nosed linebackers, kicker Ron Goldenberg, centre Gerry Turner at 6'1" and 220lbs. and 6'3" 230 lbs. tackle George Hayes.

Newcomers: A host of outstanding newcomers are expected to wear Georgian colors this year for the first time. Such outstanding prospects as Harvey Windsor, former junior football star with N.D.G. who transfers from Southern Illinois, Danny D'All an all star defensive end in Junior, Alvin Johns the best high school player in Montreal last year and his brother Lloyd.

Best news of all is the appearance of Jim Rayside a 6'5" 230lb. tackle who sat out the last two years after returning from Colorado. Jim has decided to rejoin the football wars and he should be a big leader for the Georgians this year.

GEORGIAN HOCKEY: THE LONG ROAD BACK

by Steve Halperin

(Editors note: Steve Halperin is a former Sports Editor and Editor-in-Chief of the georgian, and a longtime observer of the athletics scene at Sir George. This article, in a slightly different version, originally appeared in the georgian's special "review of the sixties" issue in December 1969.)

Alvin Toffler, the journalist, added a new phrase to the language this year in the title of his best selling book, Future Shock. Looking ahead, says Toffler, is frightening to many people, so a lot of us turn to looking back. And looking back for a concrete campus jock brings nothing but smiles when it comes to Georgian Hockey.

Hockey and success have been virtually synonymous at this university for much of the last decade. Sir George teams have gained acclaim throughout the land at a period in the institution's history when nobody could really put a pricetag on healthy exposure and publicity. Since the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union initiated its annual national championship tourney eight years ago, Sir George has represented its league on no less than five occasions. Nobody - save for the mighty Toronto Blues, can that claim. In anybody's book, Georgians must be considered one of college hockey's most consistently excellent teams.

Paul Arsenaault, the University's recently named Director of Athletics, has handled the coaching reins of the hockey Georgians in all but one of the last eight years, including the four-in-a-row champions of 1964-67. Arsenaault gave way for one year, 1968-69, to former Georgian star Dave Dies, and the personable Dies took a scrappy, spirited, never-say-die band of athletes all the way to the final round of the National play-down before they bowed, 4-2 to the power-laden Toronto team.

Then, the roof caved in. Arsenaault returned to inherit a team which had been decimated by graduation, injuries and academic ineligibility. The painful task of rebuilding a fallen giant at once appeared as quixotic as the effort made years ago by "all the kings horses and all the king's men." Arsenaault managed to steer the Georgians into the last playoff spot, but last year, what had not long ago been unthinkable, finally happened. The team failed to qualify for the four team playdowns in the Ottawa - St. Lawrence league's final season.

For us, who had supported the team through the good and the bad, there remained little choice but to join the fans of the Yankees, Packers and Celtics. We began looking back, and this is what we saw.

We saw a panorama of great names and great athletes, most of whom comprised the four time champions of the middle sixties. We saw Bob Berry, the leader, the superman, the mightiest Georgian of them all. Berry, who just completed his rookie season with the NHL Los Angeles Kings, was a once in a lifetime college player, who was a living legend in his years at the university. My fondest memory of Bob will always be that goal he scored in overtime on an end to end rush to beat Loyola and bring Sir George another OSL crown. Anyone who was part of the hysterical forum crowd that day will never forget it.

Berry never quite dominated the league to quite the extent that some campus historians would have you believe, but his two scoring titles and all-star selections, his incredible record of scoring sixty one points in sixteen games in the 1965-66 season, and his general leadership and inspirational play were each large contributors to the making of the Georgian juggernaut.

Berry's linemates, Trevor Kerr and Alex Mathew, were almost as prolific in the scoring columns, and the trio made up what has been called the finest collegiate forward line ever assembled in Canada. ("Oh yeah?" comes the cry from the Toronto law firm of Cunningham, Monteith and Laurent; and from 2160 Bishop Street goes out the refrain: "yeah!!")

The nostalgia freaks can turn next to Brian Chapman, the happy-go-lucky Torontonion who tended the Georgian goal during the entire four year skein. "Chappy" always played with a fiercely competitive spirit and a flair for the spectacular and a more dependable Puck Stopper never graced the rinks of the OSL.

And how can we forget the defensemen. Wenger, McFayden, Lemire. Superstars all.

In more recent seasons, people such as "Toby" O'Brien, Jim Webster, Bill Ellyett and Tommy Anderson guaranteed the continuity of the Garnet and Gold Machine. Graduation has taken many, but reputation has bought in many more.

But let's stop looking back for a moment. Somebody once said that you can't turn back the clock, and the outlook will get no brighter by harping over the golden oldies. It will get brighter, however, when you stop to consider the immediate future.

Arsenaault will be the first to admit that, in the record books, the 1970-71 team was his worst ever. But then, without shifting gears, he will point out that the team lost about half of its games by only one goal, and that almost every member of the Georgians was plagued by major and/or minor injuries. Everybody is healthy now, and everybody will return. And, with All-Star defenseman Mike McNamara, brilliant goalie Bernie Wolfe, star forwards Barry Cullen and John Murray and a host of talented newcomers in tow, the coach has reason to smile.

The new Quebec Universities Athletic Association (QUAA) will create new rivalries for the Georgians, with schools such as Laval, McGill and Montreal. The old ones, particularly with arch-foe Loyola, remain, and everything points to an exciting season of competition.

College Hockey players graduate, new ones come along. Intercollegiate Athletics particularly at an institution with little in the way of graduate studies) are not really geared to developing dynasties. In the balance of things, in our ever changing times, the survival of Sir George's supremacy or near supremacy in the realm of college hockey is remarkable indeed. At a University which is decidedly shy of any real pride or tradition, the men who have worn Georgian Hockey sweaters and the legacy of excellence they left behind have done more than their share to change all that.

Reminiscence and nostalgia can be comforting, and looking back is always fun. But Georgian hockey fans should feel an immunity from the affliction of future shock. The rebuilding job is over, and the best should be yet to come.

Losses: The Georgians will lose only two from last season's fifth place club. Hard working centremen Ian Hale will not return to school and Gary Crossley who finished strong on the blueline last season will not be eligible due to academic failure.

Returning Lettermen: The Georgians will have all key personnel returning. Included are Mike McNamara all Canadian defense star, John Murray 210 lb. centre and high scorer, Bernie Wolfe, rookie of the year goalkeeper, Barry Cullen, senior wing, Mike Bonkoff senior centre, high scoring wing man Ken Ekins, defenseman Brian Bedard, Ross Paterson and Steve Cameron and sophomore forwards Joel London and Rod Armstrong.

Newcomers: The most and the best rookie crop ever in Sir George hockey history will attend tryout camp this year. Included are junior stars Peter Folco from Verdun, Rory McKay from St. Jerome, Don Atkinson of Verdun and Chuck Quenneville of Dorval. Other outstanding prospects are wings Phil Turner, Mark Shewchuck, Dan Thibault, Rick Moore and Grant Sheriffs, defensemen, George Tower 6'4" George Sowinski, Brian Smiley from Providence College, Lee Taillfer and Brian Alberts.

Starting Line-up: Probable starters will be Wolfe in nets, McNamara and Smiley on defense with Murray, Cullen and McKay up front.

Coach's comments: This year marks the beginning of a new era in Quebec Collegiate sport. The new league will be tougher and better calibre than ever before. We have worthy opponents and to win we will play better than our best. We have experience and plenty of youth. Hard work and dedication will make us contenders. We will always respect our opponents and will earn their respect in return. We'll be there in late February and may the best team win the new championship of Quebec.

GEORGIAN BASKETBALL '71

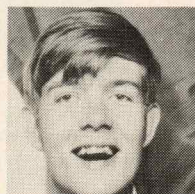

A Brighter future

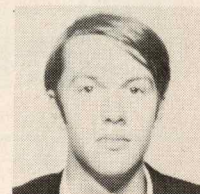

Coach Wilf Jackson

Jeff Neiman

Art McQuade

Chriss Countess

Losses:

The team loses veterans Rod Ward and Rich Campoli, two outstanding players who have had various problems with injuries over the past several years. Both players only played briefly last season.

Returning Lettermen:

Included in the returnees from last seasons fifth place club are 6'1" Art McQuade, 6'1" forward Peter Hargrove, 5'11" guard Norm Einhaber and former M.V.P. and high scorer Terry O'Brien. Expected to help the varsity also for the runner up J.V. team last year and playmaking guard Stell Azudis.

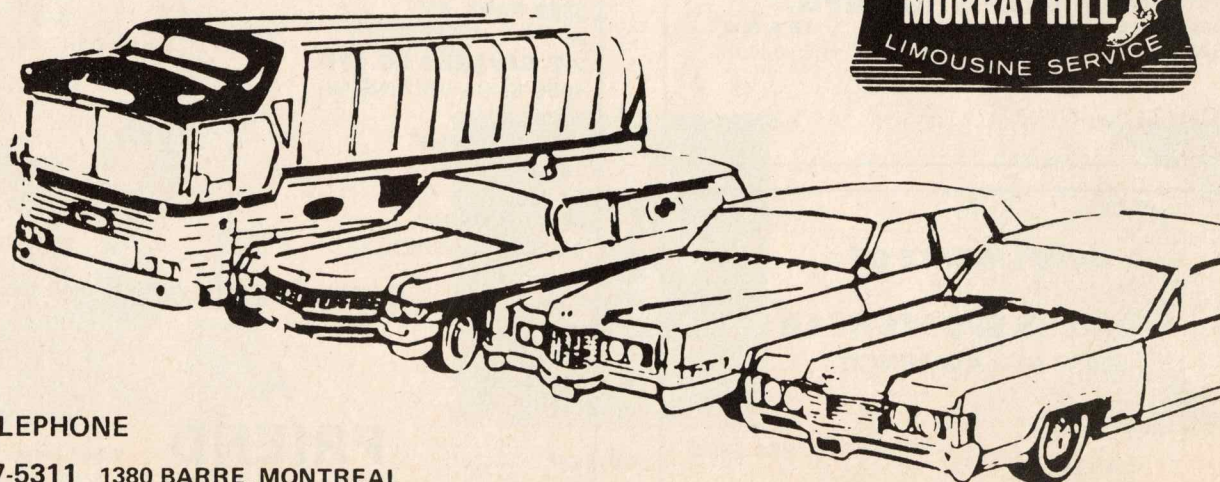

Newcomers:

Some outstanding newcomers are expected to join the georgian roundballers this season. Mike Hickey a 6'3" forward from St. Mike's College in Vermont will add toughness up front and Cary Braver and Tom Brethel two outstanding guards from New York will add needed scoring punch and speed in the back court.

Coach:

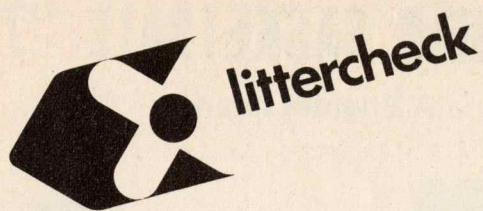

Wilf Jackson takes over the Georgian Varsity after leading his Junior Varsity Team to a tie for the league title las season. Jackson is a former star guard with the Georgaians under Fred Whitacre and it is expected he'll employ many of the successful defensive coaching techniques of his former coach.

THE MAN WHO COUNTS

It is not the critic who counts: not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena.

- whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood;
- who strives valiantly;
- who errs and comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcomings;
- who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotions, spends himself in a worthy cause;
- who, at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement;
- and, who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.
